the mark of excellence
in pest management

As a Quality Pro company, Buffalo Exterminating adheres to superior standards in conducting business in a noticeably professional manner. Quality Pro companies meet qualifications built around four key principles: Business Operations, Consumer Relations, Environmental Stewardship, Technician Training.

As a Quality Pro certified company Buffalo Exterminating:

- Practices environmentally responsible Integrated Pest Management to protect you and our environment.
- Exceeds Quality Pro safety requirements for both our staff and customers through our additional membership in the National Safety Council.
- Exceeds Quality Pro standards for offering clear, easy to understand service agreements and warranties through our exclusive "Satisfied or your money back" guarantee.
- Surpasses Quality Pro customer communication standards by delivering prompt, professional, courteous response to every request, every time.
- Exceeds Quality Pro standards for liability and vehicle insurances, business licenses and professional certifications to assure that you and your property are protected.
- Assures Quality Pro credentialed sales and service personnel through Quality Pro competency testing, state level certification exams, and over 75 hours per year of continuing education.
- Ensures safe, reliable and professional people by checking driving records, employment history, criminal background records as well as conducting drug screens and behavioral profiles.
- In addition to Quality Pro personal identification standards for both company uniforms and clearly marked service vehicles, our personnel carry photo identification to help meet your security needs.
